Executive Proclamation
Office of the Governor

Whereas, Sergeant Dave Driscoll has been a member of the South Dakota Highway Patrol since 1977; and,

Whereas, Dave started his career in Rapid City as a member of the Highway Patrol motorcycle patrol unit that operated during the 1970s and 1980s; and,

Whereas, Dave was promoted to Sergeant in May 1987, and served as the Pierre Squad Sergeant until 2004 when he transferred to the Division headquarters as the dispatch manager for State Radio Communications, had oversight of the Patrol's fleet and fleet operations center, and performed the responsibilities of a division staff assistant; and,

Whereas, Sergeant Driscoll has distinguished himself by his service to the state of South Dakota and by his leadership, example, commitment to excellence, loyalty, and dedication to duty; and,

Whereas, Sergeant Driscoll is recognized by his South Dakota Highway Patrol friends as one who will be sorely missed; and,

Whereas, Sergeant Driscoll will retire from the South Dakota Highway Patrol on December 8, 2007, after more than 30 years of faithful and dedicated public service to the citizens of the state of South Dakota, and will be recognized and honored by his colleagues, family, and friends at an open house on November 30, 2007:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim December 8, 2007, as in South Dakota, and I join his colleagues, friends and family as they recognize Dave for his commitment to a successful career with the South Dakota Highway Patrol.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-seventh Day of November in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Seven.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
